All board members were asked to complete a full audit of website pages connected to their role or committee.

Please review assigned pages to ensure:

- Information is current and accurate
- Outdated content has been removed
- All links are functioning properly
- Documents are up to date

Any required edits must be clearly outlined and submitted, along with supporting materials, to support@twodot.marketing.

Board members who do not currently oversee a specific page will be assigned additional pages to support this audit.

Minutes & Financials

It is essential that meeting minutes and financial reports are current and posted to the website. These materials reflect the transparency and professionalism of the organization and must be maintained consistently.
